LOCAL BRIEFS.

THE chimney of Judge S. C. Mills house, at Second and E streets, caught fire last evening but no damag ewas done. The St. Cecelia quartet will entertain the public meeting in behalf of humane education in the church on Thirteenth and L streets, Thursday evening at 7:45.

COLUMBIA COMMANDERY, No. 2, Knights Templars, of this city, left yesterday for Trenton, N. J., to assist in the dedicatory services of the asylum in that city to-day THE seventeenth commencement of the Holy Cross Academy took place at Marini's Hall yesterday. The distribution of awards was made in the presence of a large at-

Mr. W. W. Swarr and Miss Kate H. McChesney were married last evening at Rock Creek Church in the presence of a large number of friends. Both the young people reside near Brightwood, and Mr. Swart is a son of Mr. B. T. Swart.

A PAINTER named George Wise, who has resided in East Washington for a number of years, fled at the Freedman's Hospital yesterday. He was arrested on Saturday while under the influence of liquor, and was sent to the hospital.

The Parents Responsible.

Six neatly-dressed small white boys, ranging from 6 to 9 years, were stood up in line before Judge Snell this morning. Prosecuting Attorney Thomas said the offense that they were gullty of was housebreaking. On account of their extreme youthfulness he did not make any charge against them. They were charged with breaking into a school room at the Jefferbreaking into a school room at the Jefferson building and taking things from the teachers' desks. "The way to encourage crime sometimes is to be too lenient," remarked Judge Snell. "I have not much to say to these boys," he continued; "but if I had their parents here I would take delight in giving them a lecture. If the parents of these boys don't do their duty the Court will have to do its duty by sending the children to the Reform School, where they will be controlled. Parents who refuse to do their duty in a case of this kind have an absolute disregard for the law and are really more criminal than the law and are really more criminal than

The Mexican Band Coming. The celebrated Mexican band which de-lighted thousands at the New Orleans Exhibtion by their skillful and harmonious Exhibition by their skillful and harmonious execution will appear at Ford's Opera-House in this city either in the first or second week of July. This band justly ranks among the first musical organization in the world. The summer prices will be maintained, although the usual winter's have been paid in the Northern cities. The announcement of the sale of seats will be made later. seats will be made later.

An Extravagant Use of Water Punished.

Half a dozen citizens were before Judge Snell this morning for allowing Potomac water to waste on their premises by keeping the spigots open. Fines of $5 were im-posed in every case. The crusade on wasters of water is the result of complaints coming to the Commissioners of an inadequate water supply. An enforcement of this law always increases the pressure on Capitol Hill and other high points.

Sitting Bull Disgusted.

When he called at the White House yesterday, Sitting Bull expected to have a pow-wow with the President, and was disappointed that the interview was short. As he passed down stairs he is reported to have said: "Ugh; no good." The interpreter told him that the Great Father was very busy and that hundreds of white men come here and stay months and cannot see him. "Ugh," was the answering grunt, "white man one great d—d fool."

An Open Letter to the Knights of Labor. An Open Letter to the Knights of Labor.

A malicious report having been circulated that I have been selling Heurich's beer under my name, and that in consequence of this the boycott now on Mr. Heurich shall also be placed on me, I am compelled to state that these charges are utterly base and false. The originator of so infamous a report is cordially invited to countenance me on this point to prove his assertions or retract them.

A Delightful Exenssion.

The ladies of the National Homeopathic The ladies of the National Homeopathic Hospital Association will give a grand moonlight excursion on the steamer Lady of the Lake or Jane Mosely down the Potomac River, starting at 5:30 p. m. Friday, June 26, and return about 10:30 p. m. Music and dancing will be the order of the evening, and the ladies will serve refreshments with Russian tea, lemonade, etc.

Superintendent Smith Improving. The condition of Mr. W. R. Smith, superintendent of the Botanical Gardens continues to improve. This morning physicians entertain much brighter hopes of his recovery.

Beautiful Music.

The Marine Band concerts may be very enjoyable to those who attend them, but the music is not half so fine as the tinkling of ice against the goblet which contains Tharp's best whisky, mint and sugar. Tharp is at $18 F street northwest.

Anxious to See Bill.

Anxious to See Bill.

Lerov Johnson, George Baker and John Travers, three small boys, were fined $5 each by Judge Snell this morning for destroying public trees. The charge against them was climbing trees at Athletic Park to see Buffalo Bill's show. Officer Cross testified that the trees were damaged. The Court decided yesterday that there was no law against climbing telephone poles, but he said to-day that that decision did not include trees.

The Color Line in the Police Court. Matthew A. Cherry, a colored black smith of Eighth and Boundary streets was before Judge Shell this morning on the charge of cruelty to animals. Several witnesses testified that Cherry struck the horse with a blacksnake whip about 100 times, splitting the hide of the animal. A fine of $5 was imposed. Cherry, who is a tall old man, has been before the Court before and always preaches a sermon to the fore and always preaches a sermon to the Court and claims to be inspired, and that the Judge or no other mortal has any power to punish him, and as usual he was carried out by four policemen. He was power to punish him, and as usual he was carried out by four policemen. He was put into the dock—the Court thinking he was shamming insanity. He raised quite a time in the cell where he was put and was brought up again for trial. Seeing that the Judge was in earnest, he changed his tactics and got down on his knees in a supplicating attitude. He was fined $20 or ninety days in jail for contempt of court. In disposing of the case Judge Snell said that if he thought the prisoner was insane he would not punish him. But he claimed that he was punished because he was colored, and he was a disgrace to his race. grace to his race.
